

LANGUAGE MAGAZINE MARCH ISSUE OUT NOW

Featuring an exclusive article by Kate Kinsella, “Celebrating Multilingual Learner Identity through Personal Narrative Instruction” in which Kinsella shares a process and resources to implement a personal narrative unit that honors diversity while building communicative competence.

CABE PROMO:

Subscribe when you renew your CABE membership for just $12.95 a year

Get the expert information you need, every month, without fail with Language Magazine.

With up-to-date news and features on classroom development, professional development, and classroom guidance, Language Magazine is a valuable resource to add to your toolbox.

Active at the state, national, and international levels, we participate in state and federal congressional advocacy activities, as well as UN and UNESCO initiatives to further our goal of extending the gifts of literacy and multilingualism to all.

NEW SUBSCRIBERS: CLICK HERE FOR A FREE TRIAL TO READ THIS MONTH'S EDITION

Inside the Issue:

Translanguaging as a Transformative Force in Literacy

Pass the Mic by Mary Romney, edited by Ayanna Cooper

Special Children, Special Care

“In a narrowing world, we will all need to learn to understand each other—culturally and linguistically.”

Mary Romney, from Pass the Mic article, All Englishes Matter

Improving Literacy & Communication language( magazine

CONTACT US

✉ contact@languagemagazine.com

🌐 www.languagemagazine.com